

Tally Shorts is proud to host its 5th Annual Film Festival on January 20-21, 2017 at Challenger Learning Center and Sittig Hall in Kleman Plaza. Tally Shorts is committed to supporting arts and education in the Tallahassee community by:

Providing educational opportunities for children and adults through a variety of events with the goal of increasing community awareness and support for film as a cultural and economic asset.

Bringing a truly unique and independent cinema experience to North Florida by showcasing both films from all over the world and local/regional films.

Preserving, nurturing and cultivating the art of film within the local community by providing an avenue for filmmakers and film lovers to network, showcase and discuss all aspects of film.

- Tally Shorts for Kids including a free screening and interactive activity for kids as part of Children's Day at Challenger Learning Center.
- Filmmaking Education Panel that will be open to all festival attendees.

As an event sponsor, you will have the opportunity to:

- Showcase your product, company, or individual donation at the event with exposure to over 400 festival attendees, volunteers, filmmakers, and Tally Shorts for Kids families.
- Attend the festival – Receive All Fest Passes to the festival (based on sponsor level).
- In addition to event day advertising, you will also receive year-long exposure on our website and social media – visited regularly by filmmakers, attendees, volunteers, and sponsors during the year.
- ADDED BONUS: Your sponsor slides and sponsor poster logo will also be included at any mid-year events hosted by Tally Shorts (based on your sponsor level).
- Support an organization that invests in our community.
